

October 2026 loan approvals

10
LOANS
€1.3
BILLION

1 Czech Republic

Loan: €200 million

Borrower: UniCredit Bank Czech Republic and Slovakia

Aim: Expand access to healthcare, social services and resilient community infrastructure through local authorities and service providers.

2 France

Loan: €150 million

Borrower: Département des Bouches-du-Rhône

Aim: Co-finance investments in physical and digital infrastructure of local middle-schools.

3 Germany

Loan: €150 million

Borrower: City of Manheim's public social housing company, GBG Unternehmensgruppe GmbH

Aim: Increase affordable housing and access to integrated social services – combining housing development, stock renewal and community support.

4 Italy

Loan: €150 million

Borrower: Istituto per il Credito Sportivo e Culturale

Aim: Promote health, well-being and social cohesion through socially impactful sports and cultural facilities.

5 Latvia

Loan: €80 million

Borrower: JSC Development Finance Institution ALTUM

Aim: Enhance housing quality, reduce energy consumption and strengthen energy resilience through residential building renovation.

6 Poland

Loan: €250 million

Borrower: PKO Leasing S.A.

Aim: Improve access to finance for micro, small and medium enterprises (MSMEs), enabling businesses to invest, grow and create jobs.

7 Romania

Loan: €3 million

Borrower: Roma Education Fund

Aim: Strengthen educational and employment opportunities for Roma communities, while fostering inclusion and equal treatment.

8 Serbia

Loan: €100 million

Borrower: Serbia

Aim: Construct, rehabilitate and upgrade wastewater infrastructure across the country.

9 • 10 Türkiye

Loan: €100 million

Borrower: Industrial Development Bank, Türkiye Sinai Kalkınma Bankası (TSKB)

Aim: Strengthen the competitiveness and resilience of Turkish MSMEs by improving access to long-term investment finance.

Loan: €150 million

Borrower: Development and Investment Bank, Türkiye Kalkınma ve Yatırım Bankası (TKYB)

Aim: Improve access to finance for MSMEs to promote job creation and economic growth, focusing on earthquake-affected provinces.

