November 2026 loan approvals

10 LOANS €821 MILLION

CEB
COUNCIL OF EUROPE DEVELOPMENT BANK
BANQUE DE DEVELOPPEMENT DU CONSEIL DE L'EUROPE

1 Bosnia and Herzegovina

Loan: €5 million

Borrower: Microcredit Foundation MIKRA

Aim: Expand access to finance of economically vulnerable populations for income-generating activities and household energy efficiency improvements.

2 Czech Republic

Loan: €150 million

Borrower: Czech commercial bank Československá obchodní banka, a. s

Aim: Support the renewal and modernisation of local infrastructure and public-service assets, including environmental and climate-related investments.

3 France

Loan: €50 million

Borrower: City of Nantes

Aim: Enhance and construct new schools, early childhood and youth sports facilities, including making buildings more climate resilient.

4 Ireland

Loan: €200 million

Borrower: Housing Finance Agency

Aim: Expand stock of social, affordable and student housing to improve access of targeted groups.

5 Italy

Loan: €80 million

Borrower: Multi-utility company IREN S.p.A.

Aim: Facilitate energy-efficiency and broader building upgrades for facilities used to provide essential care, social and housing services.

6 Netherlands

Loan: €150 million

Borrower: De Nederlandse Waterschapsbank (NWB Bank)

Aim: Expand housing supply and improve existing homes for low- and lower-middle-income households unable to access suitable accommodation at market rates.

7 • 8 North Macedonia

Loan: €47 million

Borrower: North Macedonia

Aim: Expand the Ss. Cyril and Methodius University in Skopje (UKIM) to provide modern teaching, training and research environments.

Loan: €21.7 million

Borrower: North Macedonia

Aim: Bolster cybersecurity infrastructure and core national digital infrastructure for secure government operations and the long-term management and preservation of public records.

9 Portugal

Loan: €100 million

Borrower: Portugal

Aim: Fund national Renovate-to-Rent and Build-to-Rent initiatives to increase housing supply, quality, energy performance and resilience.

10 Spain

Loan: €17 million

Borrower: Asociación Provivienda

Aim: Increase long-term affordable housing and residential stability for target beneficiaries, including single mothers and survivors of gender-based violence.

