Notes to the financial statements

The Bank's objectives

«The primary purpose of the Bank is to help in solving the social problems with which European countries are or may be faced as a result of the presence of refugees, displaced persons or migrants consequent upon movements of refugees or other forced movements of populations and as a result of the presence of victims of natural or ecological disasters.

The investment projects to which the Bank contributes may be intended either to help such people in the country in which they find themselves or to enable them to return to their countries of origin when the conditions for return are met or, where applicable, to settle in another host country. These projects must be approved by a member of the Bank.

The Bank may also contribute to the realisation of investment projects approved by a member of the Bank which enable jobs to be created in disadvantaged regions, people in low income groups to be housed or social infrastructure to be created».

(Articles of Agreement, Article II).

Sectors of action

In accordance with Resolution 1495 (2006) approved by the Administrative Council on 16 June 2006, the CEB contributes to the implementation of socially-oriented investment projects in favour of social cohesion through three major sectoral lines of action, namely the strengthening of social integration, management of the environment and the development of human capital.

Its actions comply with eligibility criteria specific to each sectoral line of action, thus reflecting not only the CEB's specific social vocation, but also the development logic underpinning all its activity.

Each of these three action lines involves the following fields:

- Strengthening of social integration

To contribute to strengthening social integration and thus to tackle the roots of exclusion means, at operational level, acting in favour of refugees, migrants and displaced persons, promoting social housing and the creation and preservation of jobs, improving living conditions in urban and rural areas and modernising the infrastructure of administrative and judicial public services.

- Management of the environment

To contribute to managing the environment means not only systematically responding to emergency situations in the event of natural or ecological disasters, but also promoting protection of the environment and preservation of historic and cultural heritage.

- Development of human capital

Providing support for the development of human capital in the key sectors of health, education and vocational training in the long run facilitates more dynamic and more equitable social and economic growth, thus promoting individual fulfilment and collective well-being.

Summary of accounting policies applied by the Bank

The International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) have been applied to financial statements since 1 January 2005 (date of the first application), in conformity with the recommendations of IFRS 1, "First-time adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards" and in keeping with the other standards of the IFRS, taking into account the version and the interpretations of the standards as adopted by the European Union.

The accounting methods applied at 30 June 2008 are identical to those applied at 31 December 2007 for the end-of-year financial statements, as presented in the 2007 Report of the Governor.

The content of this publication is in compliance with IAS 34 concerning intermediary financial information, which allows the publication of summarised half yearly financial statements as well as selected notes to the financial statements. This interim financial information is to be read together with the financial statements drawn-up for the year ended at 31 December 2007 (www.coebank.org).

The half-year report at 30 June 2008 has not been audited.
